

BROOKFIELD

Cassius S. Wardner and Miss Helen K. Edwards Married in Newark, N. J.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place in Newark, N. J., Saturday evening, June 21, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Helen K. Edwards became the bride of Cassius S. Wardner, formerly of Brookfield, now of New York City. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Evan D. Edwards, and was attended by her two sisters, Lois and Blanche, and three-year-old cousin, Blanche Moore of Delverville, N. Y. The best man was Alexander Edwards, cousin of the bride. "O Promise Me" was sung by Rayden Edwards, a well-known singer of Newark. The house decorations consisted of palms, ferns, roses and daisies. Following the ceremony 50 guests were served a buffet luncheon by caterers. The wedding gown was white georgette with pearl trimmings and tulle veil with orange blossoms. The shower bouquet was white roses and lilies of the valley. The bride's traveling costume was a blue serge suit and blue georgette hat. The presents were costly and numerous. The couple made a quick getaway amid a shower of confetti and rice and well wishes of their Newark and New York friends. They are spending their honeymoon at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Wardner. They will reside at 225 Smith street, Newark, N. J., for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Rumney visited their son, L. D. Rumney, and family in Royalton Thursday.

Oliver Root of Chelsea, Mass., a former resident of this town, visited friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hall of Burlington visited Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Perham, her brother and family, Thursday.

Misses Mary Upham of Worcester, Mass., and Elizabeth Lamson of Barre came Saturday to occupy the Upham cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Fullam, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Lambert and son visited relatives in Springfield Saturday, returning home Sunday.

Miss Fay Beard has been engaged to teach school in Barre the coming year.

Mrs. Lucy Edson of Enfield, N. H., and her brother, Lewis Steele, visited Mrs. A. L. Follansbee Monday.

George E. Mason is not so well at this writing.

Dr. E. E. Ellis went to Salem, Mass., last Wednesday night to accompany to Brookfield the remains of Miss Hannah Calligan for burial in the Center Brookfield cemetery in the burial lot of her brother, Terrence Calligan. Prayer service was held at the home of Dr. P. J. Locke officiating. She will be pleasantly remembered by many in town, who met her at different times when she visited her brother, T. Calligan, and family.

BETHEL

Miss Bessie Batchelder returned to-day from teaching in Lachine, Que. Next year she is to teach in Montreal.

Miss Lena Lyford has gone to work at Hanover, N. H.

L. F. Edmunds has moved his barn to a better site and is renovating it.

W. C. LaRock and Stanley Richards are working on a new picture theatre at Randolph going and returning each day.

A. L. Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. Childs of Hillsboro, N. H., were guests at the inn yesterday.

Mrs. Alice Williams of Hartford, Conn., is a guest of her nephew, Walter H. Preston.

Miss Irene Cushing is at home from Jackson college for the summer vacation.

Mrs. W. J. Brooks is visiting her sister in Rochester.

George H. Tupper came yesterday from St. Albans expecting to attend the burial of his friend, Henry Terry of Pittsboro, Pa., at Rochester, his native town, but on arrival learned that by a mistake Mr. Terry's remains were left at Rochester, N. Y., delaying the burial 24 hours. Mr. Tupper felt unable to wait and returned to St. Albans.

C. E. Cladin, with his family, is at his cottage in Barnard.

Prof. Charles E. Hewitt of the New Hampshire State college was a guest last week at A. N. Merrill's.

Clarence Fairchild is working in J. F. Denvers' bakery in Bridgeport, Conn., a former resident, with two daughters, is visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Graham and Miss Eleanor Graham have returned from visiting in Middlebury.

G. Ira Wheat is working for Nelson Fairchild. A generation ago he worked on the same farm for C. F. Waldo.

SOUTH CABOT

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lambert were in Peacham last Thursday night to attend the Clegg-Nelson wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Kidder, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Wheeler took an auto trip to Littleton, N. H., Saturday, returning Sunday.

Edgar Houghton and family of West Danville visited at S. E. Houghton's Sunday.

School closed Friday at East Cabot.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Stocker of Danville were at W. R. Tibbets' over the week end.

Will Dutton and two grandchildren have been in Hardwick for a few days, visiting friends.

Clyde Clifford was in Plainfield on business one day last week.

School closed Friday. Fannie Smyth of Cabot has taught here the past year.

Miss Lulu Blake has returned from Woodsville, N. H., where she went to attend the graduation exercises of the Woodsville high school.

EAST BETHEL

The village school closed Thursday, June 19.

J. W. Ainsworth of Penacook, N. H., was a guest of his niece, Mrs. Frank Green, over Sunday.

Mrs. Waldo and daughter of Randolph visited Mrs. Fred Bacon a few days last week.

Mrs. DeWitt Rice of Lebanon, N. H., called on Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Brown Sunday.

Mrs. George Harlow returned from the Bethel sanatorium the first of the week.

Edward Lamphere went Monday to Springfield, where he is to work in a quarry.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Williams

7-2-4
FACTORY OUTPUT 200,000 DAILY
LARGEST SELLING BRAND OF CIGARS IN THE WORLD
FACTORY-MANCHESTER, N.H.

GROTON

Mrs. John Ingram of Barre visited relatives here Friday and Saturday.

H. C. Whitehill of Waterbury was in town Saturday to visit his father, M. H. Whitehill. G. W. Whitehill of St. Johnsbury was also a visitor at the home of his parents Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Brink and son, Trafford, and a friend from Barre were guests of Mrs. Brink's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carpenter, over Sunday.

Mrs. G. H. Pillsbury was at Topsham on Friday to attend the burial service of George Pillsbury of Hanover, N. H., an uncle of her late husband.

Miss Eliza Leavenworth is taking a vacation from her duties as clerk in the postoffice and is visiting relatives in Springfield, Mass.

Miss Grace Dennis is visiting friends in Tamah, Mass.

Mrs. Thomas of Boston has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath for several days.

Mrs. Sarah Hart of Plainfield is visiting her son, Anthony Hart, and family. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lord will be interested to learn that the family are moving this week from Island Pond to St. Johnsbury, where Mr. Lord has been employed for some time as local editor of The Evening Caledonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison of Melrose, Mass., were guests of Mrs. Harrison's brother, Ralph Foster, and family, several days last week and this.

George Morrison of Manchester, N. H., was a recent visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Morrison.

Clarence and George French are visiting relatives in Concord, N. H.

Mrs. M. D. Coffin was a visitor in Montpelier and Barre several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Frost and family moved to Burlington last week, where they passed several days at the home of Mrs. E. W. Arthur.

Children's day was observed Sunday morning at both the Methodist and Baptist churches. At the Baptist church a children's day cantata, "The Festival Queen," was very well carried out, and proved interesting and everyone felt well repaid for the time and labor given to the preparation. At the Methodist church a well-selected program was enjoyed by the large congregation present. The special music was much enjoyed. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and white peonies, and the children all carried out their parts finely, reflecting much credit on those having in charge the arrangement of the program, and the training of the children.

Mrs. Jennie Chettyo and children of Tilton, N. H., have been passing a few days with Mrs. Richard Dennis, her sister, and family. They left Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Dennis, for Sherbrooke, P. Q., to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins.

CORINTH

The fifth annual birthday party of Mrs. J. P. Merrill, Mrs. Oscar Hall, Mrs. George Patrick, Mrs. Allen Ladd, Mrs. E. F. Colby and Mrs. Charles Martin was held with Mrs. J. F. Merrill on Monday afternoon, June 16. There were other guests invited, so the number present was 22. Sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served. Photographs were taken of the whole party and also of the six ladies whose birthday it was.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Heath were at Fairlee two days last week with their daughter, Mrs. Lewis True.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Hunt (nee Amah Townsend) and little Gordon were with her aunts and uncles last week for a visit.

Lewis True has moved to Fairlee. He is intending to work at carpentering.

Mrs. Will Magoon was taken suddenly ill at Washington one day last week. She has been moved to her home at West Corinth but has not recovered.

Mrs. O. C. Williams is visiting her parents at Simsbury, Conn., for a month, before moving to Montpelier.

The date of Erdis Hastings' son's birth should have been the 12th of June, instead of the 10th, as was stated last week.

J. R. Jacobs and three children went to East Barrington, N. H., last Saturday to visit Mrs. Jacobs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wheeler.

Ralph Young is working for J. R. Jacobs for the next five weeks.

H. E. Kennedy of Montpelier was in town last week and set the tablet for Mrs. Cornelia Parker, which she had erected for herself and her daughter, Mrs. Addie Belle Davis, and righted up several other stones. There is need of many more being tended to.

Last week Mrs. G. C. Moulton and Charles Avery went to Whitefield, N. H., to visit their sister. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hannah Comstock and Miss Edith Comstock, who drove Mrs. Moulton's car.

Mrs. Leon Eastman, Misses Edith Comstock and Mary Foster are picking strawberries at Bradford.

Roy Sargent of Springfield, Mass., was at his home two days last week.

RANDOLPH

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bass and their daughter, Miss Elaine, after a few days' stay in town, left by automobile on Tuesday morning for their new home in Bangor, Me. During their stay here they disposed of their furniture and also sold their real estate to Mrs. Julia Cummings, the price being understood to be $7,500. This includes the house and block on Main street, the latter being occupied at the present by E. Nixon and C. Steele. Mrs. Cummings, it is expected, will occupy the house, as the place in which she now lives is for sale, to settle an estate of the late L. D. Partridge.

F. W. Cutting and friends of Barton were in town on Tuesday calling upon friends. Mrs. Cutting is the present grand patron of the Order of Eastern Star of Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Jones were in Burlington over Sunday on a visit to their son and wife, returning home on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas and little daughter of Portland, Ore., arrived here Tuesday night for a visit with their father, Benjamin Sargent. Mrs. Arthur Osha of Rochester met them at Bethel and came here with them. Osha and Mrs. Thomas are sisters.

Supt. G. W. Patterson left on Tuesday night for New York, and if he receives his passport will proceed on his journey to take up war relief work in the far east.

Miss Hannah Maun came from St. Albans on Tuesday and is the guest of Mrs. Herbert Flint for a time, at the Flint farm, which was formerly the Maun place and the old home of Miss Maun.

The class ride was observed on Tuesday, and nearly all the members arrived themselves of the pleasure of visiting Lake Morey. They left here at 7 o'clock in the morning by automobile, several cars taking them over. The weather was delightful and the trip a very pleasant one.

Mrs. Wiswall and her sister arrived here from Roxbury, Mass., on Tuesday for a few weeks' stay at the Wiswall cottage, where they visit each season.

MARSHFIELD

The eighth grade graduation exercises were held Friday evening, June 20, in K. of P. hall. There were 17 members in the class, representing nearly all the schools in town. The essays were well written and the various numbers of the program were carried out in a creditable manner. Owing to the illness of Superintendent Butterfield, the diplomas were presented by Principal Ralph Mayo of Cabot, who addressed the graduating class with a few well-chosen remarks. Promenading followed the exercises.

Mrs. Elva Averill of St. Johnsbury spent a few days in town last week, visiting old friends.

A telegram was received last Thursday from Corp. Edward Ward, stating that he had arrived in New York from overseas.

Mrs. Vira Annis has returned from Connecticut, where she has been for a few weeks.

The band will give their third open-air concert next Friday evening, June 27. The public schools in town closed last Friday for the summer vacation.

Miss Marjorie Lamberton, who has taught in Cabot during the past year, is at home for a week, then expects to leave for Castleton to attend the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kendall of Lisbon, N. H., were in town last week.

The house and personal property belonging to the estate of the late Frederick Tanner were sold at auction last Friday. The house was purchased by Marshall Bullock.

Mrs. Lillian Ward and son, Clifton, left Saturday to visit friends in Montpelier.

Miss Florence Wooster closed her work as teacher in the Barre schools last week and is at home for the vacation.

Miss Hazel Billings of Barre was in town the first of the week the guest of Miss Taft.

Mrs. Peter Billideau celebrated her 81st birthday last Tuesday. A large company of relatives and friends, some coming from Montpelier and Calais, assembled in the evening, giving her a very pleasant surprise. She was the recipient of several nice presents.

Mrs. Blanche Curtis was in Montpelier Monday to visit her son, who is at Heat-on hospital.

Miss Gladys Newton returned last week from Newbury, where she has taught the past year. She was in Wells River over Sunday to visit her sister.

Miss Frances Parsons, who has taught the primary department of the village school for the last two years, returned last Saturday to her home in Fairfax. Her many friends regret that she is not coming back for another year.

Miss Jessie Corson came home last week from Burlington, where she has been attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Porter and daughter of Troy were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Carpenter.

The grammar room of the village school, taught by Miss Ethel Bohannon, had a registration of 26. Carroll George, Bertha Pike and Doris and Lillian Griffith were not absent during the spring term. Victor Pitkin and Helen Phelps were each absent one day. Carroll George missed only two days in the entire year, Mildred Smith two and one-half days. Gertrude Blake and Leona Bullock had no tardy marks during the year.

Miss Leola Taft has finished her school in East Calais and is at home for a few days. She expects to attend summer school in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Folsom and son, Harlie, returned Monday from Manchester, N. H., where they have been spending a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Prouty and daughter, Helen, Mrs. C. M. Lilley, Miss Florence Wooster and Miss Anna Burnham were in St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sverdrup, Mrs. L. D. Nute, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McCullis and son, George, attended the meeting of the Eastern Star at Cabot Friday evening, June 13.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Davis were visitors in Barre last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Wood of Uxbridge, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jones last week.

Miss Ethel Prouty of Montpelier was the guest of her cousin, Miss Helen Prouty, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Sverdrup visited friends in Eden over Sunday.

Edward Bliss arrived home Monday from Mansfield, Mass., where he has been attending high school the past year. He made the trip on his bicycle.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hall spent a few days in Cabot the last of the week at the home of their son, Wesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Avon Hall of Springfield were visitors in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Vernon L. Slayton passed away Monday, June 16, after several weeks' illness from heart trouble. Her husband and three sons are left to mourn her loss. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from her late home, Rev. G. A. Furness officiating. The interment was in Green Mount cemetery in Montpelier, 45 years of her life having been spent in that city. She was 76 years of age.

Horace Burnham passed away at 5 p. m. Thursday, June 19, after an illness of seven years, resulting from a shock. Funeral services were held at his late home Sunday at 1 p. m., Rev. G. A. Furness officiating. The deceased was born in Woodbury, May 1, 1843, the son of Justus and Mary (Parker) Burnham. He was a Civil War veteran, enlisting Jan. 4, 1864, in Company C, 1st Vermont Cavalry. On Nov. 25, 1868, he married Cairn Celler of Woodbury, who died Sept. 20, 1875. To them one daughter, Mary S., was born. On Nov. 30, 1878, he married Florence M. Lowell of Marshfield, who survives him with their two sons, Elmer E. of this town and Elbridge.

STOPS PAIN
For CRAMPS, Radway's Ready Relief and DYSENTERY

Does one-half teaspoonful in a half tumbler of water. Instant relief. Safe for children. 25c, 50c, $1.00.

HOTEL BOWDOIN
Cor. Bowdoin and Cambridge Sts.
Boston, Mass.

Rooms by day or week. Single or en-suite with bath; $1.00 per day and upwards. Homelike, clean, comfortable. Near cars to all points. C. N. Campbell, Proprietor.

For Second Summer Babies—

THE danger period in every child's life is in the 2nd summer when teething, fretting, heat—call for extra strength.

BOVININE

The Food Tonic

gives this extra safety strength which helps babies through their dangerous teething, the second summer. For 42 years doctors have prescribed this strength-builder. Ask your doctor.

6-oz. bottle - 70c 12-oz. bottle - $1.15 Sold by your druggist.

114 THE BOVININE CO., 75 W. Hudson St., New York

W. of Middlesex, and his daughter, Mrs. Dennis Lamberton of Lowell. The pallbearers were the two sons and son-in-law and nephew, Lewis P. Burnham. Flowers were as follows: Pillow, from the family; flowers, Florence Lamberton; carnations, Mrs. Etta Burnham; flowers, Mrs. Mary Sanford; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Miles; roses, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McCullis; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carr and Mrs. H. V. Lull; peonies, Mrs. James Bouldry. Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Morse of Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carr and Mrs. H. V. Lull of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniels of East Montpelier.

The Methodist church reorganized its Sunday school last Sunday, electing the following officers: Superintendent, A. W. Clark; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Nellie Mears; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Mabel H. Bartlett; cradle roll superintendent, Mrs. Myra Davis; auditor, A. H. Bartlett; missionary superintendent, Mrs. Geneva Hollister; missionary secretary, Mrs. Flora Bliss. Teachers chosen were: Primary, Mrs. Kate Rosebrook; beginners, Miss Emma Packer; juniors, Mrs. Lillian Davis; intermediates, Mrs. Nellie Mears; young people's class, Rev. E. L. Goddard; seniors, Mrs. Laura Wilson. With such a Sunday school board it is to be expected that the most efficient service can be rendered all who will come. Punctuality will be observed at all services. Preaching service at 2:30, Sunday school at 3:30.

Moving pictures Thursday, June 26, Jack Pickford in "Sandy," also a Fattie Arbuckle comedy in two reels in "Good Night, Nurse." Dance after the show—8 o'clock.

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Furness are attending the graduating exercises at Goddard seminary, Barre, this week, their daughter, Miss Evelyn Furness, being one of the graduates.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for all their kindness shown us in our great sorrow. We wish especially to thank the nurse, Mrs. Etta Powers, also all donors of flowers.

Mrs. Florence Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lamberton, Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Burnham.

EAST CALAIS

At present everyone seems to be thinking and talking on the same subject, the grand celebration in Barre July 4. East Calais will be well represented and it is hoped everybody in the town of Calais who has worn the uniform and been in service for Uncle Sam will once more don that uniform and go to Barre and enjoy all the entertaining given for the boys of Washington and Orange counties and help make that a day long to be remembered.

Miss Sylvia Bliss is spending a week with friends at Maple Corner.

J. W. Warhurst and Mr. Comstock were business visitors in Barre last of the week.

Mrs. Alice Guernsey Sawyer and daughter are visiting at O. W. Guernsey's.

Alvin Teachout and George Kidder of Montpelier were in the village Tuesday.

Ellen Keniston and Clarence Wilber visited in Montpelier on Sunday.

Miss Alma D. Leonard was in North Calais recently on business connected with the Red Cross.

There will be a business meeting of the Red Cross Tuesday, July 1, at Mrs. D. D. Lamb's. This meeting is called to transact some business that was overlooked at the last meeting. Several matters of importance will be voted upon.

Miss Louise Prevost of Hardwick is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Clara Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Dwinell are in Burlington part of the week to attend the graduating exercises at U. V. M. Their son, Harold, is one of the graduating class.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bancroft and George E. Sanders and wife were in Montpelier on Monday to attend the commencement concert at Montpelier seminary.

Archie Saxby was a business visitor in Montpelier recently.

WELLS RIVER

High School Report.

The year just closing was one of the most successful of school years. Throughout the year the attendance was good, the work satisfactory in every way and the results obtained by the teachers quite creditable.

The following is a condensed report from Principal King: Highest rank for each class, senior Miss Georgia Moore, junior Miss Charlotte Symes, sophomore George Amidon, freshman Miss Blanche Blood.

Miss Georgia Moore holds the highest rank of the four classes. The following have obtained a rank of 95 or over: George Amidon, Blanche Blood, Dorothy Cameron, Mae Deane, Marion Farquhar, Thomas Farwell, Millie Frost, Francis Goehy, Mary Graham, Kathleen Goehy, Katherine Hendry, Clyde Harvey, Doris Hinman, Georgia Moore, Wallace Renfrew, Gerald Roberts, Howard Smith, Charlotte Symes, Ethel Symes, Edith Tinsley. These all have gone to their homes except Principal King, who has gone to summer school. The teachers wish to express their gratitude to everyone who has assisted them in any way and helped to make this the successful year that it has been, particularly to those who so kindly aided the commencement.

Murray Wilbur is spending a week's vacation with relatives and friends in Newport.

William Greenwood left on a week's vacation for Detroit, Mich., last Sunday, where he will visit his brother.

Miss Cara Cooper of Moline, Ill., and sister are visiting friends in town.

NORTH MONTPELIER

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Benjamin and family visited in Moretown over the week end.

Mrs. Maynard King of East Calais was a recent visitor at Mrs. Archie Person's. Misses Edith Little and Ruth Kelton were among those who graduated from the Plainfield junior high school last week.

Those who spent Sunday at their camps at Joe's pond were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hillis, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pray, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Pray and Miss Lillian Kelly of New York City.

Theo Clark counted the autos passing his house on the main road Sunday and, notwithstanding the cold and windy day, from morning until 9 in the evening he counted 354 autos.

Saul Grey is in very poor health. H. Jerome of Montpelier is spending a few days in town in the interest of the National Life Insurance company.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Persons and Mr. and Mrs. John Emery motored to Craftsbury Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Nye are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Stevens at Middlebury.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ellis were visitors in Calais last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lawless and children, Gled and Minette, of North Haverhill and Miss Dorothy Silver of Concord, N. H., were visitors at Mrs. Lizzie Perry's Monday.

Miss Hattie Johnson is visiting friends in Waterbury this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bliss and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wing started Tuesday on an auto trip to New Bedford, Mass.

ADAMANT

The funeral of Leslie Hughes, who died at his home in East Montpelier of abscess of the lung, was held at the church here Monday at 2 o'clock. Rev. Myrtle Hunt officiated. The bearers were Myrtle Robinson, Percy McLeod, Fred Orr and Roscoe Campbell, playmates. There were many floral tributes to show the love and esteem everyone had for him. He was a bright little fellow and had been a great sufferer for seven years, though he never complained, always bearing his troubles in silence. He was laid to rest in the Robinson cemetery in Calais. Those from out of town to attend the funeral were his sister, Edith, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ravecraft and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Miller and son, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowell and son, Raymond.